Tribal Community and Justice Profile (20%)

You may enter as much or as little text as you need to fully describe your community as long as the total number of pages for the entire Tribal Narrative Profile does not exceed 10 pages, double-spaced, with 12-point font size. Note that template questions do not count towards the page limit. The profile is intended to give reviewers an overview of the tribe's overall criminal justice system(s) and concerns. Remember that the individuals reviewing the application may not be familiar with the community, so descriptions should be as clear and detailed as possible. Be sure that every question is answered. If there are questions that you are unable to answer, provide an explanation as to why the information is unavailable.

1. Describe the general form of your Tribal Government.
2. Briefly describe the tribal justice system, including prevention or intervention initiatives for members at risk of involvement, or already involved, in the justice system (youth or adult); law enforcement, including any cross-jurisdictional agreements; courts; alternative dispute resolution; corrections, including juvenile detention facilities; services for victims and survivors of crime (e.g., violent crime, nonviolent crime, drug-related crime, child abuse, elder abuse, domestic violence, sexual assault, dating violence, stalking, human trafficking, identity theft, restorative practices, etc.); tribal reentry programs; and sex offender registry obligations. If services are not available within the tribe, please describe how they are accessed or provided.
3. Please briefly discuss the tribe's overall state of public safety and indicate the crime and public safety problem(s) that the tribe plans to address through this proposed grant funding and how they were chosen as priorities. This may include community demographics that impact public safety, such as visitor populations, neighboring cities, etc.

Please note: A detailed description of the problem(s), including data and a description of current or previous efforts, will be requested in each separate Purpose Area narrative.
