PREVENTING MINORITY YOUTH VIOLENCE
Target population, eligibility, screens, and assessments worksheet

This worksheet exercise is to help you prepare to identify your program’s target population, eligibility requirements, and assessment processes.

Whom you plan to serve
1. How do you define “high-risk youth” for the purpose of your initiative? Are these youth your target population(s)?
2. How do you define “eligibility” for this initiative? Are there any exclusionary characteristics (i.e., youth not eligible to participate)?
3. If your initiative has more than one potential referral portal or referral partner, how do your eligibility parameters differ across portals, partners, and referral sources, if at all?

How will you get them in the door
1. What recruitment strategies will you employ to ensure you reach your target eligible population?
2. If your project involves more than one potential referral portal, how do your recruitment strategies differ for each, if at all?

Screens/Assessments
1. Do you plan to use initial screening tools to help determine participant eligibility? If so, what tools are you using?
2. Do you plan to use more comprehensive assessments to guide service delivery to enrolled clients? If so what tools are you using?
