

Fact Sheet

cops.usdoj.gov

2023 COPS Office Collaborative Reform Initiative (CRI) Program Awards

The Office of Community Oriented Policing Services (COPS Office) Collaborative Reform Initiative (CRI) program encompasses three programs offering expert services to state, local, territorial, and tribal law enforcement agencies, ranging in scope and complexity, at the voluntary request of agencies. The continuum of services is designed to build trust between law enforcement agencies and the communities they serve; improve operational efficiencies and effectiveness; enhance officer safety and wellness; and develop and disseminate evidence-based, promising, and innovative public safety practices.

CRI Awards

The 2023 CRI program funded projects related to the following subcategories:

- Organizational Assessment
- Critical Response
- Collaborative Reform Initiative Technical Assistance Center (CRI-TAC)

The full listing of awarded projects is located on the COPS Office website at <https://cops.usdoj.gov/cri>.

Funding Provisions

Provisions include the following:

- In FY 2023, the COPS Office awarded $7,497,634 million under the CRI program.
- Generally, the CRI program was open to for-profit (commercial) organizations, nonprofit organization, and institutions of higher education. Categories and subcategories had individual eligibility criteria. Accepted proposals were responsive to the solicitations.

Contact the COPS Office

For more information about the COPS Office Collaborative Reform Initiative program, please contact the COPS Office Response Center at AskCOPSRC@usdoj.gov or visit the COPS Office website at <https://cops.usdoj.gov>.