Background Screening and Prevention Training Resources for Projects Involving Minors

To aid in the safeguarding of minors involved in U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ)–funded youth-centered programs, we have identified a relevant training program that is available free of charge through the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP)–funded National Children’s Advocacy Center (NCAC): Preventing Child Sexual Abuse in Youth-Serving Organizations. This program is accessible via the NCAC Virtual Training Center (www.nationalcac.org); you can search for it by name from the home page.

The COPS Office has worked with the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children (NCMEC) to update the publication titled What You Need to Know About Background Screening (<https://portal.cops.usdoj.gov/resourcecenter?item=COPS-P260>). This publication addresses the importance of background screening, the range of screening options available to organizations, and best practices in conducting background screening and acting upon the results.
