Quarterly Activities/Project Description***

The officers funded with Recovery Act funding improve Village public safety in multiple ways including enforcing the Village's laws and engaging with community members to prevent and solve crime. This quarter one of the officers participated in a special elementary school event aimed at preventing school violence. Another officer began attending community group meetings within the Village's immigrant community. This partnership has been beneficial for both the department and the community. The meetings have allowed the officer to explain what it is that police officers can and cannot do, and what unique skills they have to help ensure community safety. Other officers within the department have also had time to participate in community activities and problem solving projects.
