

THE POWER OF PARTNERSHIPS: HOW BULLYING AFFECTS SCHOOLS AND COMMUNITIES

Successful Strategies for Dealing with At-Risk Youth

MAY 29, 2013 • 3:00 – 4:00 EDT

To register for this FREE webinar, click here or email Katy Cummings at kcummings@ncpc.org

Join us while experts in the field outline successful strategies for dealing with youth and how teamwork between school districts and law enforcement can be successful.

Sam Stulo

School Resource Officer
City of Racine Police Department

Sam has been in law enforcement for over eleven years as an investigator. He assisted in creating an after school program for at-risk youth and has served as a

SRO for over nine years. He is instrumental in fostering relationships between law enforcement, school staff, and youth.

Eliot Underhill

Principal and Assistant Director
Racine Unified School District

Eliot has an extensive background in the military and law enforcement. He obtained his teaching certification and master's and served as an adjunct professor. Now, Eliot oversees the educational operations of the Racine County Jail, Detention Center, and transitional programs.