COPS Office Director Commends IACP on Launch of Institute for Community-Police Relations

U.S. Department of Justice, Office of Community Oriented Policing Services (COPS Office) Director Ronald L. Davis congratulated the International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP) on the launch of the IACP Institute for Community-Police Relations earlier today.

“I congratulate IACP on the launch of the Institute for Community-Police Relations, which will help the law enforcement field implement and institutionalize recommendations from the President’s Task Force on 21st Century Policing,” said Davis. “We are proud to support the Institute, and look forward to continuing the partnership between the COPS Office and IACP.”
