

THE PRESIDENT'S TASK FORCE ON 21ST CENTURY POLICING

Sandra Brown

Sandra Brown joined the Palo Alto Police Department in 1988 after serving for five years, with the Santa Clara County Sheriff's Department. In Palo Alto, she has worked successfully as a team member in traffic and commercial enforcement; investigations as a sexual assault and burglary investigator; patrol supervisor; and spent a short time as a motor sergeant. Sandra was a Crime Scene Investigator for 10 years, promoting to supervisor of the team which included 18 members. Sandra was assigned to Media Relations in 2006 and served as the Department's spokesperson promoting to Lieutenant and managed the program as the lead Public Information Officer. Her last assignment was in charge of the Training and Professional Standards division of the Palo Alto Police Department located in the San Francisco Bay Area. Prior to retiring, she began teaching Fair and Impartial Policing throughout the country to spread the Fair and Impartial word. She trains the supervisor, patrol/recruit and TOT versions.