

THE PRESIDENT'S TASK FORCE ON 21ST CENTURY POLICING

Delilah Coleman

In a traditional way of greeting, I would tell you my name and my clans. I am Delilah Coleman; my maternal clan is Red Running into Water people, born for Salt People. My paternal clan is Bitter Water, born for the Red House People. My family originates from the northernmost area of Arizona. Today, my mother's family resides in a small community called Navajo Mountain on the Utah and Arizona border. However, due to a vast majority of reasons – I have lived in Flagstaff, Arizona for a majority of my seventeen years.

As a senior of Flagstaff High School, the ultimate goal for this year is to graduate and attend my first choice university. As a Native American student, I realize how lucky and blessed I am to have achieved so much within a short four years.
