

THE PRESIDENT'S TASK FORCE ON 21ST CENTURY POLICING

Renaldo Fowler

Renaldo Fowler is a Senior Staff Advocate with the Arizona Center for Disability Law (ACDL) where he has been employed since 1984. Renaldo joined ACDL following his graduation from Arizona State University and has worked in the disability field for the past 30 years. Presently, he is working extensively with laws affecting students with disabilities within the educational system. He has been a voice in the state regarding racial discrimination in student discipline, as well as the disproportionality and over identification of African Americans students in special education. Renaldo has successfully developed numerous trainings related to special education and positive behaviour supports relating to restraint and seclusion in schools. Renaldo is also co-founder of the African American Symposium on Disabilities.
