

THE PRESIDENT'S TASK FORCE ON 21ST CENTURY POLICING

Bruce D. Lipman

Bruce D. Lipman recently retired at the rank of Lieutenant after more than 29 years serving on the Chicago Police Department. His last assignment was as the Commanding Officer of Instructional Design and Quality Control Unit of the Chicago Police Education and Training Academy and was also in command of the distance learning unit. Bruce has his Masters Degree in Business Administration from Saint Xavier University and is a graduate of the Northwestern University Center for Public Safety School of Staff and Command. Bruce been involved in the Department's Community Policing strategy, CAPS (Chicago Alternative Policing Strategy) since its inception in 1992 and was part of a group working to revitalize CAPS at his retirement. Beginning in 2012, Bruce oversaw the creation, development and delivery of a Procedural Justice/Police Legitimacy program which has been presented to 10000 Chicago Police Officers, as well as community residents and various organizations. The training academy has also presented Procedural Justice/Police Legitimacy training or resources to other police departments around the country including Oakland, Salinas, Stockton, South Bend, Seattle, New York, New Orleans Kalamazoo and Las Vegas to name a few. Before retiring he finished work on the curriculum for the second phase of Procedural Justice/Police Legitimacy Training. Bruce is an Adjunct Faculty member at Saint Xavier University where he has taught in the MBA program at the Graham School of Management for ten years. In 2012 he won the Graham School of Management Faculty of the Year Award. Bruce has been married to Sharon for 25 years and has five children and three grandchildren.