

THE PRESIDENT'S TASK FORCE ON 21ST CENTURY POLICING

Dustin A. Smith

Sacramento Police Officers Association, President

Dustin Smith began his career with the Sacramento Police Department in 2000. He joined the Sacramento Police Officers Association Board of Directors, as a Director at Large in 2003. He moved to the positions of Secretary and Vice President before being elected to the position of President in 2012. The position of President is a full time release position in the City of Sacramento. Dustin is the lead negotiator for the bargaining group which represents all Police Sergeants, Police Officers, Community Service Officers, Park Rangers, and Dispatchers. Dustin has also been heavily involved in the Peace Officers Research Association of California where he has been a Director at Large, and is currently a Trustee for the PORAC Legal Defense Fund. Dustin is also the current Treasurer of the California Coalition of Law Enforcement Associations, and a Commissioner on the City of Sacramento's Racial Profiling Commission. He holds a B.S. in Criminal Justice which was obtained at Sacramento State University.