

St. Louis Metropolitan Police Department

Law Enforcement in Society: Lessons of the Holocaust

Sergeant Sheila Pearson

WHY THE HOLOCAUST

- Awareness/Education: well documented
 - ✓ History
 - ✓ Role of Law Enforcement
 - ✓ The rights of citizens vs. the law
- Open dialog regarding racial profiling, with irrefutable material
- Explore other events in history & the role of Law Enforcement

Goals of the program

- Not Training
- Personal experience that allows for everyone to leave with something different
- Breaking through stereotypes
- Explore non-biased law enforcement

WHO IS THIS PROGRAM FOR ?

- Mandatory for recruits in the academy
- All Commissioned & Civilian personnel
- Suggested for Field Training Officers, Lead Officers & Mentors

CHALLENGES

- Not sensitivity or cultural diversity training
- Not mandatory training
- Offer Continuing Education & Racial Profiling Hours
- Why the Holocaust & not other atrocities in history.....

St. Louis Holocaust Museum

Sgt. Sheila Pearson
St. Louis Metropolitan Police
Department
315 S. Tucker Blvd
St. Louis, Mo 63102
(314) 444-5572